

Education

1967

B.Sc. Degree in Marine Engineering---Kobe University of Mercantile Marine, Engineering Department (4.5 years course)

1972~73

Post Graduate Study (2 Semesters)---Nuclear Engineering Credit programme in California State University, San Jose, then San Jose State College (sponsored by General Electric Company, Nuclear Energy Division)

1972-73

In-house Nuclear Engineering Training courses provided by General Electric, Co., Nuclear Energy Division

Work Experience

1967 to 1969 Nippon Yusen Kaisha (Shipping) Company, nuclear propulsion programme staff

1969 to 1979 General Electric, Nuclear Energy Division
Both in Japan and California Headquarters

Worked as a project manager on Japanese Nuclear Power Reactor Program. Later as a Licensing Manager for licensing and marketing

1979 immigrated to Canada

1979 to 1983 Gross Machinery Group, as a liaison engineer for the importation of CNC machine tools from Japan

1983 to 1991 Nissho Iwai Canada Ltd, (Nissho Iwai is one of the world's largest trading companies in Japan) as the Manager, Business Development

1991 to 2004 Established Tenex Canada, Inc.(Consulting between Japan and Canada in the area of technology transfer, licensing and the promotion of joint venture. Market research, contract research) and

Norflex North America, Inc. (product exporting)

1996 to2003 Canadian representative of Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, Ltd. Of Japan

2003 to present Business linguistic services
(interpretation/translation)
Currently working as a full time free lance translator for highly technical areas and a simultaneous and consecutive interpreter

Member of International MBA Advisory Board for York University

Invited as a guest speaker for various business lectures and meetings

For more detail and copies of certificates etc, please access;